

Samui Hotel – How To Find The Best Tariff?

Samui hotel from 6-star to budget and even those suitable for backpackers is available in plenty all over the island, especially the beach areas.

Online PR News – 08-March-2010 Koh Samui, Thailand is fast gaining popularity as the preferred tourist destination of international tourists. To meet the demand for accommodation posed by the growing number of tourists to the island, hotels samui are coming up in a wide range of budget. Samui hotel from luxury resort to budget hotels and even those suitable for backpackers is available in plenty all over the island, especially the beach areas.

Due to the presence of large number of hotels, there is high competition among them to lure customers. If you know how to exploit this situation, it is possible to stay in a 5-star Samui luxury resort by paying the tariff for a 3-star or a 2-star Samui hotel. However, choosing hotels based only on tariffs is not advisable, as chances of ending up in a stinky hole that can ruin the whole show.

There are two surefire methods of choosing a good hotel at the lowest tariff possible. The first one is booking rooms through an online agent. And, the second the method is to book the hotel directly as a repeat guest. Koh Samui accommodation offer huge discounts for repeat guests, if asked for the same. As the second option is available only to those who have visited the island earlier, online booking agents are the best bet for first-time visitors.

There are scores of hotel booking websites with numerous hotels listed in them. These sites also provide detailed information about their tariffs, discounts, images, facilities and even reviews written by past guests. The tariffs offered in these sites are the lowest, as hotels give them huge concessions for the enormous volume of booking they bring in. These rates are not given to even walk-in guests.

Even in these sites, the lowest tariff for a Samui hotel is offered when booking is done months in advance. Some of the sites even arrange transportation and tour packages for tourists. Using the sites not only gets you a steal deal, it also helps in planning the entire vacation.
