Sanders formed LifeBio after an impromptu interview with her grandmother in 1993. She discovered that everyone has a story to tell, and made it her mission to help others share their stories.

"There are so many ordinary, yet extraordinary, people with rich and complex life experiences lying dormant, just waiting to be uncovered," said Sanders, author of the Memory Journal. "Once the reminiscence process has begun, it's truly amazing to see what invaluable stories and memories are revealed." LifeBio provides more than 250 structured questions to make it easy for people to write and autobiography.

LifeBio will host an open house Thursday, March 11, 3:00 PM to 7:00 PM at LifeBio headquarters in Uptown Marysville, Ohio, 232 N. Main St., Suite 2J. Sanders currently resides in Marysville with her husband and two children. To learn more about LifeBio, please visit www.lifebio.com.
