Online PR News – 10-March-2010 summer magic camp for Kids. The only summer camp devoted to the teaching of magic to the youth in Texas and surrounding areas.

Parents, need a little time for your-self? How about a Magic Camp? Master Magician Philip Kampf is offering his 5-day summer magic camp that runs from Monday thru Friday 9:00 AM till 4:00 PM. Drop them off and pick them up. Boys or girls 8 or older can participate. Starting June 14th 2010 and running through August 2nd.

Parents are offered different sessions to choose from. From beginning classes to advanced. Class size limited to 10 students. The Houston summer camp will be held in Mr. Kampf's 860 square foot magic studio, located on 2 acres in a wooded surrounding at 916 Woodland St in Channelview, TX, just 30 minutes from downtown Houston. It's not just about the secrets. Performing the art of magic as a hobby produces some great positive results including:

- Confidence and self esteem by performing in front of people and entertaining them
- Hand-Eye Coordination
- Multi-task thinking
- Discipline in the study of the craft
- Trust in the keeping of secrets and methods
- Friendships around the world with other fellow magic enthusiasts
- Popularity and the ability to make new friends
- Studies in art, history and culture

The magic summer camp students will learn theatrics, movement, stage direction, and of course all the magic skills necessary. They will have enough material to put together a great 30-minute show. Parents and friends will see them perform on Friday night of that week.

As a practicing magician for 50 years and a full time performing magician for over 25 years Mr. Kampf is offering his knowledge in magic and theatre to teach the youth this fine art we call magic.
