Online PR News – 10-March-2010 Chicago nightlife is hotly anticipating the return of techno trance DJ John De La Mora as he is set to perform a DJ set on Saturday, March 13th at Vision Nightclub in Chicago's trendy River North neighborhood - the heart of the city's pulsating club scene.

John is scheduled to perform in the Vision Penthouse, the uppermost floor of the historic Excalibur building. The Vision Penthouse will be presenting a Transgressive Vibes party that evening, hosted by Transgressive Vibes Radio Show programmer DJ Row, and will also feature DJ's: Misha Valentine, Pawel B, Hady Basha, Syed K and Dustin Zieska during a night of uplifting and euphoric trance.

Center stage that evening on the Vision Nightclub main floor will be the German trance duo Stoneface & Terminal.

Techno Trance DJ John De La Mora last graced the decks at Vision Nightclub in October of last year, delivering one of the most energetic and memorable performances in recent times. Last month, John dropped a blistering and massive 4-hour techno trance set at the underground venue Club Inside in Sofia, Bulgaria. Chicago nightlife can expect much of the same energy and euphoria at the Vision Nightclub Penthouse.

Says John, "Last year I was mixing and presenting the Trance Nation Radio Show for Supraton Entertainment in Hamburg. I felt the need to spread my wings again and fly high. I ended that partnership and created the Techno Trance Radio Show, which continues to air weekly on 70+ stations around the world."

He continued, “At the Vision Nightclub Penthouse on Saturday, March 13th I plan to present a mix of my favorite and hottest techno trance music productions at the moment, along with a classic or two which remain dear to me. The bottom line is this: Chicago is my hometown. Vision Nightclub is presenting multiple events that night. I am glad to be part of it, and I will be giving it my all.”

Well said.
