Comparing quotes is the best way to cut cost on auto insurance and it is absolutely free to shop around.

Online PR News – 11-March-2010 Comparison shopping is a key aspect to finding affordable automobile coverage and the more rates that a consumer obtains and compares the better the chance of finding the most affordable rate. OnlineAutoInsurance.com is proud to provide visitors with free quotes from various top insurers to help motorists find lower premiums.

OnlineAutoInsurance.com offers visitors the ability to obtain free auto insurance quotes by simply completing a brief form with basic information needed to calculate rates; information such as driver's license and social security numbers are not needed to obtain rates which provides a more comfortable shopping experience for consumers.

Shopping online provides a great way to not only save hard earned money, but also valuable time. Government websites such as the Missouri Department of Insurance has also acknowledged the speed and convenience of shopping online and states, "The Department recommends that you get three quotes when shopping. But with Internet shopping, three quotes take no time at all. You could probably get 20 quotes in the same amount of time it takes to drive to or call three agents."
