

Atlanta Personal Injury Firm Receives Prestigious Recognition

Law firm of Howe & Associates of Atlanta, Georgia announces their law firm's rating of "AV Preeminent" by the Martindale-Hubbell Legal Directory

Online PR News – 11-March-2010 The distinguished law firm of Howe & Associates of Atlanta, Georgia is proud to announce their law firm's rating of 'AV Preeminent' by the Martindale-Hubbell Legal Directory.

For the past 130 years the Martindale-Hubbell Legal Directory has been rating lawyers nationwide through a series of complex scoring formulas and criteria. With only a small percentage of attorneys in the country attaining this respected 'AV Preeminent' status, and only the most experienced being considered as candidates, the AV Rating is a testament from peer legal professionals and judges that the firm "clearly indicates a demonstration of the highest professional knowledge and ethical standards". It is, in fact, the highest rating available and indicates the firm of Howe & Associates has reached the top level of legal expertise and competence.

An Atlanta personal injury firm representing those injured on the road or at work in the State of Georgia, Howe and Associates has over 120 years of litigation and trial experience. Their peers in both the legal and medical profession recognize the firm's lawyers as top legal counsel.

Founded in 1985, Howe & Associates is a civil trial law firm representing clients in cases of personal injury. It doesn't matter what your case is, whether an auto accident, trucking accident, construction accident, slip and fall injury, burn injuries, premises liability, or wrongful death suit, the law firm of Howe and Associates will scrutinize every detail until we find evidence that will help strengthen your case.

Their attorneys are also expert Atlanta debt collection lawyers representing clients in cases of debt collection, including collection of bad checks, breach of contract disputes, credit card collection, foreclosure collection and judgment enforcement. The firm offers its clients high collection percentages, legal expertise and skilled advice in virtually all aspects of the collection industry.

Their debt collection lawyers will provide advice to their creditor clients on the creation of credit application forms, contracts, deeds to secure debt, UCC liens, as well as creditor representation in bankruptcy proceedings.

Media Information

Millard Clark

millard@atlantawebpros.com

<http://internetmarketingatlanta.org>

2897 N Druid Hills Rd

Suite 257

Atlanta

GA

30329

United States