

Build your IT infrastructure on an Indian CLOUD

Image Gallery

Cloud Hosting or cloud computing is a simplified arrangement of datacenter where virtualization technologies play a vital role to bring down the intricacies of the whole hosting concept.

It is time to meet your ever- increasing web hosting requirements in a truly affordable manner. BrainPulse introduces economical, reliable and secure Cloud hosting Solutions for all scalable business requirements.

Online PR News – 02-September-2010 BrainPulse, an eminent managed Web Hosting services provider, delightfully announces the launch of its recent Cloud Server Solution, devised specifically to answer the growing business requirements of wider expansion in these unsettled times. The company is fully equipped to deploy powerful cloud solution based on the robust and reliable new Intel® Xeon® Processor, in just few minutes. All you need to do is select a size of your Cloud servers, choose your choice of operating system and your server is Up. Hence, it is easy, real-time and accessible at your fingertips.

The lucrative aspect of enhanced IT capabilities as well as capacity, while cutting down the capital outlays and operational overheads, is what Cloud introduces to your business. Also, the Cloud Hosting brings to you the very desirable features of increased scalability as the environment enables users to access additional computer resources to encounter their amplified application loads. www.brainpulse.com is your way to have a reliable, scalable, secure and economical enterprise-class CLOUD computing arrangement.

The advanced Cloud solution provides you with virtualized IT infrastructure along with the alternative of getting configured and reconfigured as per your demand'. Its core features include:

CPU Allocation: 1 VCPU

Hard Disk: 40 GB

RAM Allocation: 1 GB RAM

Bandwidth: 100 GB Bandwidth

With this technology, you can effortlessly, offload selective IT workloads to a cloud and ensure improved responsiveness for your business requirements. Keeping you totally free from the requirement of buying additional hardware or software for implementation, the company lets you enjoy full flexibility with accurate and functional allocation of all computing resources in sync with your requirements.

About The Company

BrainPulse is a well acclaimed Web Hosting Company with an impressive record of embarking valuable efforts in the industry of web hosting, from time to time. The company takes it as its responsibility to render best, technology-driven, cost-effective web hosting solutions that ensure extensive coverage at least expenses. The company offers a whole range of web hosting services including Reseller Hosting, Shared hosting, Cloud Hosting, Business Hosting, Virtual Private Servers (VPS) and Dedicated Servers. Attributes such as fanatical technical support and 99.95% uptime guarantee, makes it a preferred choice of many.

Media Information

BrainPulse Technologies

sales@brainpulse.com

http://www.brainpulse.com/web_hosting_india/cloud-hosting.php

C-102 Sector 65

Noida

UP

201301

India