

High Position Team Member To Embark On Epic Adventure

Excitement continues for staff at High Position as yet another team member demonstrates an appetite for success and adventure by heading off on a trip of a lifetime.

Online PR News – 02-September-2010 - One of High Position Search Engine Optimisation's team members is preparing for an adventure holiday that will see her take in the heady sights, sounds and aromas of Thailand, the unique atmosphere of Sumatra, the vast beauty of Western Australia – before heading to a blisteringly hot South Africa. The South East Asian leg of her journey takes place during the Monsoon season, while the skies are likely to be endless blue in Australia and SA.

An integral member of the High Position team, she helps manage a wide range of high profile client accounts. She brings together her team's various skill sets in order to create High Position's unique approach to integrated internet marketing. Search Engine Optimisation, Pay Per Click and Conversion Rate Optimisation are three of the core services that have helped High Position's clients gain maximum visibility in search – with exceptional conversions.

Her adventurous spirit mirrors that of the High Position team. By embracing change and welcoming challenge, the team has grown to become one of the most adaptive and knowledge-rich integrated marketing services in the United Kingdom.

A combination of fortune and skilled management has ensured High Position has weathered the economic challenges of recent years, bucking the trend by increasing their client base. Based in Colchester, Essex, the team embraces the informal Google motto "Don't be evil", by ensuring full compliancy for its clients' websites, as well as the corporation's indefatigable approach to improving its services for the benefit of all of its' clients.
